

SUMMER CHOIR NOTES

Have you always thought you might like to sing with the choir on Sunday mornings, but were afraid to ask? Maybe you thought because you can't read music, you really shouldn't try. Well, nothing could be further from the truth! All adults are welcome – no one is turned away. And there will be 2 opportunities this summer to check it out in a very non-threatening setting.

The first senior choir party, for present and aspiring members, is June 30, 4:00pm, at the beautiful home of Liz Lauber. The second, also at Liz's home, will be on August 25, at 4:00pm. All you have to do is come, and bring either a hearty hors d'oeuvre or a yummy dessert. You'll have a chance to meet other choir members and review some of the new anthems which will be sung at worship during the coming fall.

For more information, talk to Liz on Sunday morning, or call her at 998-7206.
